Dear Miss To,

Re: Application for the post of Assistant Screenwriter

I am writing to apply for the post of assistant screenwriter advertised in "Starlife" on 23rd August. I would like to be an assistant screenwriter. A copy of my CV is enclosed.

I am a student at MFBM Chan Lui Chung Tak Memorial College and I am going to take my HKCE Examinations. As a screenwriter of my school's Drama Club, I have a lot of experience in amateur screenwriting. Over the past four years, I have written five scripts for the competitions of screenwriting. Three of these, "Friendship", "Complicated Human" and "Simple Love" won prizes of the "Best Young Screenwriter", "Most Creative Screenwriter" and "The Best Script" at the Hong Kong Film Awards. The scripts and other samples of my work are included in the enclosed file.

For as long as I remember, I have wanted to pursue a career as a screenwriter. I admire the work of local screenwriter and I want to become the one of it. I am interested in a wide range of film genres, so I write the scripts from action comedies to historical costume dramas. I can also write scripts quickly, even finish a long script in a few days.

As chairperson of the English Club and vice-chairperson of Chinese Club in my school, I have a fluent command of written and spoken English and Chinese. I would make most of the experience if I were selected to be the Assistant Screenwriter.

I hope that you will consider my application favourably. I would be glad to attend an interview at any time that is convenient for you.

Yours sincerely,

Vicky.
