The image shows a hand-drawn acrostic poem on a white background. The poem is framed by a decorative border consisting of alternating pink hearts and blue flourishes. The text is written in a colorful, childlike style. The first line is 'Lovely', the second is 'Eager', and the third is 'Elegant'. There are several red hearts drawn around the text: two small ones to the right of 'Lovely', and two larger ones at the bottom right of the page. The letters are drawn with thick lines, and some have small red hearts or flourishes next to them.
