You are Chris. Your friend, John, would like to know more about the English Week at your school. Write a letter to John and tell him about the English Week.

Dear John,

How are you? I'm very happy to receive your letter. There will be an English Week at my school next week. I would like to tell you more about my English Week.

On the first day, there will be English card games at the English Corner. Students can learn English words and the spellings. There will be a film show in the school hall. Many English films will be shown on that day.

On the second day, there will be a singing contest in the school hall. Students can sing English songs in front of their peers. There will be a book sale in the afternoon. Students can buy English books at discounts. Reading English books is a good habit.

On the third day, there will be a storytelling competition. Students can tell stories on the stage. The stories will be interesting. There will also be an English drama show. Students can learn English through speaking the language.

Is there anything else you want to know? You can send an e-mail to me.

Best wishes,
Chris
