How do I equip myself for the HKDSE?

By Bob Po (SS1E)

I think the HKDSE is difficult, so I think I should improve my English language. I have some ways to equip myself for the HKDSE.

First, I think I should watch more English programmes and read more English books. It is because they can improve my English grammar.

Second, I think I should speak more English, for example, read the dialogues in the comic books. Then I can learn how to speak English myself.

Third, I think I should listen to more English songs or music. It is because they can train my listening for English.

Finally, I think I should highlight the key words, such as the terms, the concepts and the vocabularies in my notes and my textbooks. Then I will organize them in the way that I can recall them easily. I think it is convenient to study and recite the notes and the textbooks for the HKDSE.
